

A _____ is an unplanned event that does not result in injury, illness, seeking medical attention, or lost time from work – but had the potential to do so. It simply means an accident / injury occurred.

An example is a pen that falls on the floor that has the potential to cause a slip or fall because no one has picked it up.

An accident that results in an injury requiring on-site first aid attention. This injury does not require seeking medical attention or results in lost time.

First aid includes: cleaning minor cuts, scrapes or
